COPPOCK CONFERS

Objective Set Up For Work Before Force Reduced

Reduction of CCC forces at the Palo Duro State Park has been ordered at Washington effective the latter part of April or first of May when two companies of veterans will be transferred to mountain projects in Colorado. The men will be returned here in the fall to work during the winter months.

Executive orders have been passed to this effect, according to a telegram from Congressman Marvin Jones. Mr. Jones and Senator Tom Connally have insisted that the Palo Duro camp be maintained to full strength during the summer, but National Park authorities believed that the work could be carried on through the summer with a smaller number of men.

Colonel Edward R. Coppock is at Fort Sill today where arrangements will be completed to recruit the four companies to full strength, and to carry on the work in the future. Col. Coppock had recommended that all four companies remain here owing to the vast amount of work in prospect.

Major A. E. Kingsley received notice from D. E. Colp Friday that a number of men should be taken to the Pallasades to complete the work there. So far no definite plans have been given him for the contemplated work.

NEW DROUTH ORDER BECOMES EFFECTIVE FRIDAY

W. E. Bennett Is Candidate Re-election Commissioner

W. E. BENNETT

The following announcement is authorized by W. E. Bennett, candidate for re-election:

To the people of Randall County and especially to the voters of Precinct No. 4.

I am making my announcement for re-election as County Commissioner at the earnest solicitation of friends that are well acquainted with my record as Commissioner.

For the last several years, during the time that I have been serving as County Commissioner, the county has passed through a period of unprecedented constructive advancement. While I do not claim credit for any great amount of this improvement, I have always endeavored to do my part.

Hon. S. B. Orton has printed on his candidate cards quite a lot of information on the county's affairs, all of which has been done in the last three years. But large improvements had been done the six years prior to this last three year period, and, also, the foundations laid for a great deal that has been completed recently.

The fact is that nearly all of our many miles of public roads have been opened, built and maintained; that the roads and other improvements have been paid for; and no other warrants issued for several years, that we could not write a check for. Our taxes have not been unreasonably high at any time, seem to prove conclusively that the business of the county has been in pretty safe hands.

The people of Precinct No. 4 have seen fit to return me to the office of Commissioner five consecutive times, and I have tried to show my appreciation by making the best commissioner of which I was capable. I am willing to stand or fall on the record that I have been able to make. I am greatly indebted to the citizens of Precinct No. 4 for the favors bestowed upon me in the years that are gone, and if I am again returned to the office I will continue to serve my friends and neighbors to the very best of my ability.

300 MEN WILL BE MAXIMUM IN NEW SITUATION

Committee Scans Plans as Sent Out From Austin

EFFECTIVE FRIDAY

Drouth Section is Recognized in Orders Received

With a quota of 300 men, Randall county will come under the special drouth relief measure starting Friday morning. CWA will disband tonight and the new organization will take its place.

189 men constituted the quota for this week. This will allow 111 men to return to work who were forced off the rolls by the steady reduction in CWA forces during the past three weeks.

All men in the county will work 24 hours per week under the new setup, and will be paid 35 cents per hour. This will be of great benefit to the farmers who have been restricted in the past to 15 hours per week.

A meeting of the local committee was held last night attempting to re-organize the local work to come under the terms of the new set-up. A number of important rulings will be sought as to the method of handling future work.

It was ordered Wednesday from Austin that the TB test, the sanitation work, and the night school be continued without interruption. The local committee has recommended the completion of all projects which are now underway, and added a few which are needed in the county. These projects must be approved from Austin as in the past.

Dr. J. A. Hill has requested additional funds for continuing the improvement work in the administration. (Continued on last page)

Car Accidents Are Destructive

Automobiles are very destructive to life and property in the United States. 756,500 accidents were reported during 1933. In these accidents 29,900 people were killed and 850,700 people were injured.

More people were killed during 1933 than during 1932 in spite of the fact that 1.6% less cars were registered, and gasoline consumption shows that these cars were used less than in 1932.

It pays to drive carefully.

Burney Slack Is Candidate Office of County Judge

BURNEY SLACK

Burney Slack has authorized the following announcement of his candidacy for County Judge and ex-officio Superintendent of Schools:

To the Voters of Randall County: I take this means of announcing my candidacy for the office of County Judge and ex-officio Superintendent of Schools, subject to the Democratic primary on July 28, 1934.

In asking the people for this support and vote, I do so in the belief that my experience as a county official, and my training as a student of public affairs makes me qualified for the office. I have served as Tax Assessor during the past two terms. This has given me an opportunity to study the problems of the county, and to realize what the people expect of their county officials. I am in close contact with the business affairs of the county and believe that I am in position to be of great service to the taxpayers in the recovery program from the prevailing depression and drouth which has so badly handicapped all of our people.

In offering myself as a candidate for this office, I realize that full co-operation should exist between the County Judge and all members of the Commissioners Court in order that the best interest of the taxpayers may be fully served.

I am greatly interested in the welfare of the schools of the county, and it shall be my pleasure to co-operate with the trustees in making the schools the very best we have ever had. I am a high school graduate from the Canyon Public Schools, and a college graduate from the University of Texas.

I shall greatly appreciate your support during the campaign, and your vote in the primary election.

BURNEY SLACK.

SECOND VOTE CALLED BEER ISSUE HERE

Petition Presented Monday Asking For Election

DEFEATED IN AUG.

Expect Twice As Many Votes in Election March 31

In response to a petition bearing 270 names, the commissioners court ordered an election in Randall county for March 31st to determine whether the sale of beer shall be legalized in Randall county.

An election was called on August 26 at which time the beer question was rejected by a vote of 581 to 359. While only 940 votes were cast in that election, there are now more than 2,000 qualified voters to participate in the election this month.

In the election last August, a very heavy majority went against the legalization of beer in Canyon, and the south part of the county while beer was favored in the west and north parts of the county. In Canyon the vote was 160 for, and 427 against, legalizing the sale of beer. Voting boxes 2, 3, 4, and 5 voted against beer, while 7, 8, 9, and 13 favored beer. No. 6 was a tie.

No movement has been started to organize the county either in favor of or against the issue in the coming election.

The following will be the election judges in this election, and the other county-wide elections to be held during the year:

Precinct No. 1, Hud Prichard.
Precinct No. 2, J. J. Leavitt.
Precinct No. 3, J. F. Hudson.
Precinct No. 4, Emil Schaeffer.
Precinct No. 5, James E. Park.
Precinct No. 6, John Haines.
Precinct No. 7, George Mason.
Precinct No. 8, W. P. Jansen.
Precinct No. 9, Joe Kimble.
Precinct No. 14, C. B. Erwin.

Randall county officers will try to bring the men here to face this charge at the July term of district court.

Children's Books Being Provided For the Library

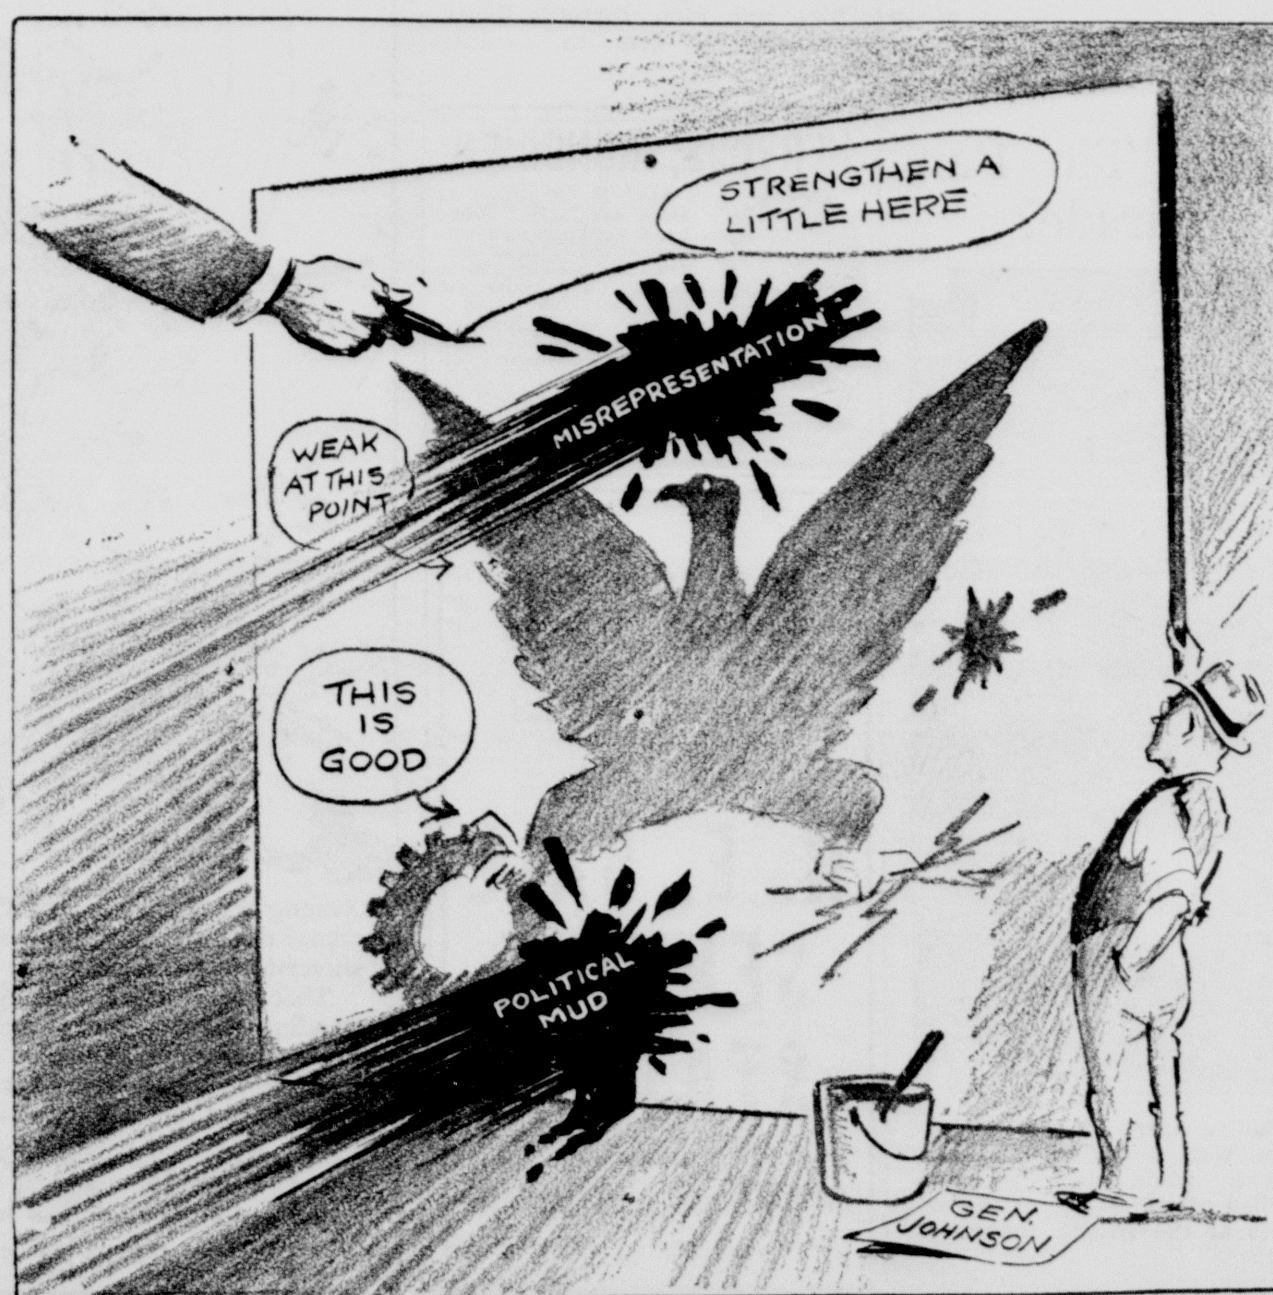

At a meeting this week, the Junior Woman's Club decided to take as their project the providing of children's books for the public library. Since the library has been largely used by adults since it was first started many years ago, the supply of suitable books for boys and girls from three to fifteen years old is limited.

A new book card plan has been inaugurated since last week for now patrons may buy membership cards for $1.00 per year. If at the end of the year, the card owner owes no fines, and has lost or destroyed no books, he may secure a refund of fifty cents. It is hoped however, that no refunds will be requested, each patron allowing his refund to be used to buy new books.

Members of the Junior Woman's Club and the Woman's Book Club have all paid $1.00 each for their cards and none of them will accept the refund, this being a part of their contribution to the project.

Miss Fannie Malone, the librarian, has all the books ready for circulation, and new cards are being sold constantly, she reports.

THE BEER QUESTION

Upon petition presented to the commissioners court by the required number of legal voters, an election has been called in Randall county for March 31st.

The News regrets very much that this election has been called by the small number of people necessary for the petition. The voters rejected the beer issue in August by a vote of 581 to 359.

It is true that the vote of last August was cast by less than half of the qualified voters of the county, and that the vote in the coming election will probably run near the 2,000 mark. If the voters reject the beer issue in the coming election, surely another attempt will not be made to legalize beer in Randall county.

The News has always opposed legalizing liquor. Illegal liquor is very, very bad, but when the people vote to legalize the stuff and allow it to be openly offered for sale it becomes much worse.

The argument is made that the county should derive some revenue from the sale of liquor. The News does not believe that the state ever has any business legalizing anything which is in itself a damnable institution, and has caused the downfall of so many men and women, boys and girls.

The argument is made that beer is a harmless thing, which will injure no one. Police statistics are pointed out that arrests have decreased since beer was legalized. This is not so. The police records of many of the large cities show that arrests for drunkenness have increased very greatly since beer was legalized, and that emergency hospital cases have greatly increased since beer was offered for sale to all comers.

The argument is made that beer is not responsible, but that bootleg whiskey causes these arrests and these accidents. This may be true, but the argument in favor of legalizing beer falls, when it is considered that the taste for beer leads on to the demand for stronger drink, and the open saloon with all kinds of hard liquor is the real incentive back of this movement for legalizing beer.

Many a misguided person has found that the beer business is unprofitable because of the high licenses and the short sales. Perhaps fifty percent of those who took out licenses in Texas last summer found it unprofitable. The argument then that so much revenue is being lost for Randall county falls, and the real motive is shoved to the foreground; that is, the return of hard liquor by opening the wedge with beer.

Canyon will make a sorry spectacle in Texas if beer is legalized and sold here. Of the 17 state educational institutions in Texas, only two are located in towns which have allowed beer to be sold. Lubbock has turned down beer in two elections.

U. S. Must Determine Its Future Farm Policies, Says Secretary Wallace

THE time has come for America to take a definite stand on its future farm policies. And because this decision will affect everyone, farmer and city man alike, every American should ponder the problem carefully.

This is the gist of an important pamphlet prepared by Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace for the Foreign Policy Association and the World Peace Foundation.

According to Wallace, the United States never can go completely back to the "every man for himself" policy which marked the expansion of the nation. This has been apparent since the World War.

The war threw 50,000,000 acres of European farm land out of cultivation, and foreign food prices rose. American farmers thereupon broke 40,000,000 acres of new farm land to raise the food Europe needed.

After the war, Europeans went back to the plow and raised their own food, but Americans, ignoring dwindling overseas markets, kept their farms in high gear.

WE raised our tariffs, preventing foreigners from paying for our commodities by sending us their own. And so we had to lend them money to buy our surplus farm produce. Suddenly, we found we would have to abandon even this policy, when we learned that our loans weren't going to be paid.

So American farmers found themselves with huge surplus crops on their hands which the United States couldn't use, and which foreign countries couldn't buy.

With the crop reduction program, continues Wallace, the government just has been sparring with the situation. It now is time to come to grips and devise a permanent policy.

SECRETARY WALLACE believes Uncle Sam has but three courses to follow: Internationalism, nationalism, or a middle path. Under the first plan, we could continue to grow as much as we have been doing, and are going to advertise to the world that they would rather have beer than a first class college, they will probably get their choice. The fathers and mothers of Texas are not interested in placing their boys and girls in towns where liquor is allowed to flow freely. The News believes that the voters of Randall county must make the choice, and we believe that they will choose to keep a first class college, protecting the young men and young women from the influence of legalizing liquor.

During the election last year, the argument was made that to legalize beer would stop the bootleg business. Yet drunkenness in Texas has increased with beer. Now those interested in the return of the saloon with all kinds of liquor are saying that to legalize hard liquor will stop bootlegging. This is absurd. Canada has liquor, but the bootlegger thrives. So long as there is a tax on any commodity, there will be the bootlegger; such as the gasoline bootlegger, the cigarette bootlegger; the smugglers of jewelry, silks, etc. Place a government tax on any commodity, and certain people attempt to evade it.

If beer is legalized in Randall county, it will not actually help a half dozen businesses. Booze has

In his farm policies for the future, Uncle Sam must take one of three paths: Self-containment, full participation in world trade, or a planned middle course, says Secretary of Agriculture Henry Agard Wallace, above.

At the same time, we would have to cut down our tariffs, so that foreign countries could send us commodities to pay for our own. Tariff-shearing would have been responsible for wrecking many good business institutions in the past. It will repeat, and in much quicker time, if liquor is allowed to be sold here.

The News believes that good judgment dictates that beer should not be legalized in Randall county; that there is everything to lose and nothing to gain in setting up institutions in the county which are fundamentally wrong, and surrounding which there is not one good thing to be said.

to be planned carefully, so that U. S. industry, which would bear most of the burden under internationalism, would be injured as little as possible.

Individual industries that were hurt would have to be helped by the government.

Wallace emphasizes that, regardless of the plan adopted, somebody must feel the pinch; but that this is necessary for the good of the majority.

NATIONALISM, the second "out," means that we would raise only what is needed over here. Under this plan, Wallace contends, we would have to retire permanently from 40,000,000 to 100,000,000 acres of land; at the same time letting the government tell every farmer exactly what and how much he could raise. Here, obviously, agriculture would suffer.

The middle course is a planned medium between these extremes. Tariffs would be lowered enough to let a greater amount of foreign goods flow in; at the same time we would retire enough good farm land to eliminate vast surpluses.

Tariff and crop reduction must be planned carefully. Under this middle path, both industry and agriculture would be affected. Hence, Wallace believes it the fairest and wisest course for all concerned; although he, personally, leans towards internationalism.

THERE is still another course—letting things go on as they have, and crossing our fingers; i.e., trying to sell abroad as we used to, but not buying as much from foreigners as we formerly did.

This policy, when followed in the past by older nations, has, reminds Wallace, led to "bloody foreclosure proceedings, at the point of guns."

In concluding his statement, Wallace stresses the urgent need of a long-time trading problem approved by the people; one "which they are willing to stand behind, no matter how plausible the appeals of special pleaders."

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, minerals, water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down—and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't task for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name and get Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

W. T. H. S. Play Is Amusing Comedy

Rollicking Comedy Guarantees Laughs By the Dozen

Friday evening, March 16, at 8 o'clock, in the Education Building, one of the most amusing and exciting comedies ever presented by amateur actors is to be produced by the senior class of the College High School. The production is being directed by Melva Gamewell, under the supervision of Miss Mary Morgan Brown and Miss Helen White Moore. "Aunt Betty of Butte" is a play in which the differences between the open manners of the West, Eastern ideals, and English nobility are shown in a striking manner.

Is Self Made Success

Agnes Smith, Aunt Betty, plays the part of a self-made business woman from the west. You will be surprised to find that the English Sir Thomas Lord, interpreted by Wayne McNeill, is not all shocked by Aunt Betty's frankness. Indeed, he more than admires her.

Jewell Alma Glass, as Mrs. Grayson, plays opposite J. T. Sykes who finds it convenient to go outside and look at the clouds when his wife appears and measures his western sister by her very eastern standards.

Stutters Helplessly

Virginia Murray, in the part of Suzanne Grayson, falls in love with Richard Porter, Don Savage, who gets so excited that he stutters helplessly in asking the consent of Suzanne's parents to their marriage.

The maid, played by Madelyn Bull, never tires of bringing in packages, signing for special deliveries, answering the telephone, or bringing in tea for Aunt Betty, even though her mistress, Mrs. Grayson, finds such popularity on the part of her sister-in-law very displeasing.

It is now claimed that laughter is excellent massage for the liver; and in this rollicking comedy, you are guaranteed not one laugh, but many. So throw away your liver pills and buy a ticket, for only twenty-five cents, to see "Aunt Betty of Butte."

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. Warwick Aiken, who was called to New Orleans last Sunday night on account of the sudden death of his brother, will be in charge of the service at the local church next Sunday night, March 18th, at eight o'clock. At that time, he will deliver the sermon on "The Nation That Is No Nation," scheduled for last week.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, being March 19th, 20th, and 21st, Bishop Seaman will visit Canyon for a series of Lenten services and sermons. He has chosen the following subjects: "The Purpose of God and the Mind of Man" (Seeking); "The Purpose of God and the Will of Man" (Fulfilling); and "The Purpose of God and the Heart of Man" (Triumph).

All of these services will be held at eight o'clock in the evening and all students, faculty members and Canyon friends are invited to attend. Rev. Warwick Aiken will also be in the chancel on Monday night, and will assist in the service.

Miss Flora Dorris of Amarillo spent the week end in Canyon.

In Style, New Frocks Run Neck and Neck

BY HARRIET

LOOK for interesting necklines when you start to buy a spring wardrobe. This is the year when dresses are identified by neck treatments.

For instance, if you're a tall, slim girl with a slender neck, you'll be intrigued by the high necklines. Some of them are perfectly plain; others have little collars.

But, collarless or not, they wrap the throat in fabric and give you a certain sophisticated glamour. However, if you are short and want to do all that you can to make yourself look taller, there are necklines made just for you.

Low V's, cowl effects and low, but softly draped round necklines are flattering to one with a short neck. And then, of course, all manner of neckwear lends itself to the new mode.

BIBS and tuckers, pleated berthas, jabots, attached scarfs, nun-like collars and many other such novelties are used on spring frocks, printed or plain.

If you have a dark dress, by all means lighten it with some frivolous touch of the lingerie variety. Organdy, dotted swiss, and silk fashion some of the hand-somest collar and cuff sets.

There's a real vogue for printed dresses with plain colored jackets. And the smart thing is to wear the printed collar outside of the jacket.

THERE are two dresses that illustrate how important necklines can be. The street ensemble is a spring classic, achieving smartness by its plain jacket of navy blue worn over a printed dress that has a navy background.

The rayon print is very interesting—little coin dots in vertical rows on the fabric. The material is used straight up and down in the bodice and in diagonal effect in the skirt.

The neckline is neither high nor low, but is finished with a wide, pleated collar worn outside of the jacket.

of the jacket. The black leather belt is worn at the normal waistline and is trimmed with a white pearl buckle which matches the buttons on the sleeves of the jacket.

A printed evening gown of sheer rayon is simply perfect for parties throughout the spring and summer. The background is white, but the colorful designs in red, blue, yellow, and mauve almost cover it. The softly-draped, V neckline is flattering indeed, and the shoulder capelets are a new spring note.

One-fifteenth Part of Gas Taken From the Panhandle Field

J. D. Thompson, Jr., geologist of Amarillo, made a classification talk Tuesday at the Rotary club, describing the work of his profession, and applying it to the Panhandle field.

Geologists estimate that 63 trillion cubic feet of gas existed under the proven field of the Panhandle, and about 4 trillion cubic feet has been taken out, stated Mr. Thompson. They estimate that a billion barrels of oil existed under this territory, and that 200 million barrels have been taken out.

Noble Bros. brought in the first well in 1919, and after 15 years the oil companies have invested about 100 million dollars.

The Rotary Club will give the program at the OCC camps Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

W. L. Pearson, manager of the Texas Utilities Co., was introduced as a new member.

Visitors present Tuesday were Cal Farley, N. H. Moore, Harvey Allen, J. D. Thompson, Jr., of Amarillo, C. R. Miner and R. C. Carter of Lubbock, W. H. Younger of Tulsa and Mayor C. R. Burrow of Canyon.

Dr. Goldsmith Talks On Fine Arts Applied To Every Day Living

"How many really know what art is?" asked Dr. Goldwin Goldsmith, head of the Department of Architecture at the University of Texas, in his informative talk to the student body Saturday morning. "The Fine Arts in Everyday Life" was the subject discussed by Dr. Goldsmith, who came here through the courtesy of the American Institute of Architects.

"We come into contact with the fine arts every day," he pointed out, "yet many of us do not realize it. I am inclined to agree with the late Florenz Ziegfeld that 'Beauty gives us the last thrill left in a mechanical age' and that we must strive to put beauty into our everyday lives. We must know the principals of art before we can make the best of our daily lives."

"Develop Individuality" "Develop individuality in your tastes," he advised, "but develop also harmony, and an eye for color and arrangement. Let your own personality develop itself. All of us have a craving for beauty but we do not understand it nor have we learned to express it."

Dr. Goldsmith pointed out the opportunities for beautifying the home, grounds, and public parks, many of which are overlooked in the civic life of the small town. He gave many pertinent suggestions as to how this work of beautification may be carried on, suggesting that one aid to a program of beautification would be an Art

Commission whose duty it would be to plan the improvements for the whole town, thus bringing about harmony in gardening and in building.

Stresses Imagination "The true artist," he concluded, "does not want distortion, nor does he want photographic reproduction. Some things must be left to the imagination."

Dr. Goldsmith also addressed several of the art classes during his day's visit here. He was the luncheon guest of Randall Hall.

Virginia! Who's your new beau? You musta made a catch at the fat stock show in Amarillo last week. The reason I thought he wuz wun uv them real (drug store) cowboys from cowtown, wuz becuz uv that big old fuzzy cowboy hat he wears. Well, luck to you, Virgi, you'll need it if you intend to hold that man, cuz a good man's hard to find nowadays.

Wednesday morning I wuz walkin' up to the school building, jest sober as a jedge, when I seen a awful pretty green plaid dress come out uv the school house door, then the next thing I knew here come another wun, then another and another. Them plaid kinda bumfuzzled me. I shet and opened my eyes real quick, and even smelled uv my breath to see if I wuz capable of seeing things double; then I come to find out that the green brigade wuz now on parade. If you ain't seen 'em yet, look around the following boys and see if you can't find four gals with dresses alike—Alton, Pat Cox, Hammer (Lisle) or Skeeter Wirt.

You Seniors jest can't take it. The idea of letting them Junior boys beat you in intramural basketball. But I guess I'll have to hand it to the Junior kids; they are pretty fair. Yep, they had to be good to beat them Sophomores the few points that they did. Even if the Juniors are the champs, you Sophs ain't no chumps. I still think the Sophomores is got a swell team; they jest needed a little coaching. Spec, jest a little coaching. Say, I know how to get back at every class. Jest put your king and queen on the throne. I ain't a doubter! It a bit that you will. So try your darndest.

After watching them Senior Eagles play tother night, I wuz convinced they've really got a great future ahead uv 'em. I bet in a couple years, they'll be on the Ogden Boosters team, yea—and you might even get so good that you could be a substitute for the Alamo Outlaws.

Here's hopin' you basketball stars get that high.

Press Club Sells Tickets To The Art Exhibit

The Phidias Art Club is sponsoring an art exhibit in the building north of the College Oasis, just off the college campus. The Press Club is sponsoring the sale of tickets in the high school.

The exhibit consists of 150 reproductions of pictures painted by both old and modern masters. The exhibit will be until March 16th. Tickets are being sold for 10 cents each and are good for any number of visits to the exhibit, but are not transferable.

The high school is contesting the W. T. high and training school in the sale of tickets for this fete. To the school selling the most tickets will be awarded a $10 picture from the collection.

These tickets are on sale each day, at noon in the high school hall, and by members of the Press Club. In the grades, members of the various home rooms are selling tickets.

SLUMBER PARTY GIVEN BY WINNIE D. HICKS

Winnie D. Hicks celebrated her birthday Thursday, March 8, with a slumber party at her home. At 10:30 p. m., peaches, cake and hot chocolate were served; at 11:30 p. m. small sacks of candy and toasted marshmallows were served. Breakfast of coffee, eggs, toast, bacon and preserves were served to Margaret Nicholas, Maeon Howard, Jewel Chambers, and Winnie Dee Hicks.

BICYCLE RACKS ARE PLACED BETWEEN SCHOOLS

A set of bicycle racks has been set between the two schools. Many children, especially in the grades, ride bicycles to school. These bicycles have been placed at various places around the school building and at homes near the school. Mr. Kiker, seeing the need for a rack, constructed one, and placed it there for the children's use.

PROMINENT NEWSPAPER MEN TO SPEAK AT INITIAL MEETING OF P. H. S. P. A. HERE MARCH 23

Saturday, March 24 will be an eventful day in Canyon and for Canyon High School because for the first time in the history of the Panhandle, an association of high school press clubs will be organized under the name of Panhandle High School Press Association. The organization is being fostered by Superintendent I. B. Carruth and the Canyon High School Press Club. The various schools of the Panhandle will send delegates to the meeting.

Registration will begin at 10:00 and continue until 10:45 when Mr. Carruth will give the welcome. Lectures will also be given during the day.

The big event of the meeting will be the banquet served in the Home Economics dining room at 6:00 o'clock. Prominent newspaper people, such as Clyde Warwick, Olin E. Hinkle, Harry Montgomery, and Louise Evans will be the main speakers throughout the day. They will speak on different phases of news writings. Entertainers will be tap dancers, readers, singers, a violinist and the Glee Club of Canyon High School.

Students Attend I. R. C. Program

A number of high school students attended the International Relations Club program, Friday afternoon in the W. T. Administration auditorium.

The main speaker of the afternoon was Mr. Ernst Uiberall of Austria. Mr. Uiberall is a student in the University of Vienna. He is traveling in the United States to familiarize himself with social and economic conditions here. The speech was of direct interest to high school students, because it told of the social, political, and educational situation of the young men and women of Austria, who would be classified as high school students in America.

Fredda C. Bills Writes About School Life

Robbie Foster has just received a letter from Fredda Charles Bills, a former student of Canyon High School, who lives in Littlefield. Fredda Charles wrote that she was debating for her first time this year. She wrote:

"I believe that I will know something about radio when I get through. We had a debate tournament here Saturday. I guess you heard about it as Canyon was invited. Ralls won first place and Littlefield won second in the girls' tournament."

Fredda Charles, who was very interested in Girl Scouting while in Canyon, wrote that she wanted to register with the Canyon Scouts again this year, so that if she should come back to Canyon to live she would be a full-fledged Girl Scout. There is no Girl Scout organization in Littlefield.

Fredda Charles has been doing excellent work at school. She wrote, "I got exempt in all my mid-term exams. I made a straight A average in all five subjects. I'm just taking four subjects this term: English, trigonometry, debate, and home economics."

Latin Club Gives Statue Program At Chapel Hour

The Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Mattie Jordan, had charge of the regular assembly program, Thursday, March 8. Armor Lee Greenfield made the announcements and the student body, led by Laura Ferne Brian, joined in singing several songs.

Spring football training for the Canyon Eagles starts Monday afternoon, March 12th, under the supervision of Coach Jones.

Monday at noon the boys interested in spring football met in room 29 where Coach Jones discussed spring practice with them.

"The boys that come out for spring football and learn block and tackle will have a better chance to make the team next fall than those that don't attend spring practice," said Mr. Jones.

"We will go out at three and come in at five."

"So that you will have something to look forward to, I plan to close spring practice with a regular game played among yourselves," Mr. Jones said.

One Act Play Given Friday Night In The Auditorium

The one-act play, which will be given by the Canyon High School cast at district meet, will be presented Friday night in the Canyon high school auditorium.

Because of the royalty which must be paid there will be a small admission of 10 and 15 cents.

"Fixin's" by Erma and Paul Green, is a study of the grinding poverty of tenant farm life, which the authors have observed from childhood. Here the pent fury of the work-driven woman, Lilly Robinson, is portrayed with grim and terrible reality. She craves a little beauty—"purty fixin's," but her husband's eyes cannot see beyond the sod he plows.

The scene is a bare, calm home in Hornet county, but the theme is universal—the pitiful conflict of two natures which are irreconcilable.

The characters are: Ed Robinson, Ernest Duncan; Lilly Robinson, Dora Mae Plaster; Jim Cooper, Marian Tucker.

MRS. STRAIN IS TAKEN TO DALLAS FOR TREATMENT

Mrs. C. E. Strain, principal of the Grade School, was taken to Dallas Sunday to be treated by a specialist. At this time no word has been received as to how Mrs. Strain stood the trip. Mrs. Strain has been ill for several weeks.

Miss Lois Goodrich visited with friends in Friona and Clovis over the week end.

To Bobby Jo Cheyne, and to Bill, Lorna, Carl, and Betty Jo Conc, The Eagle's Tale staff, together with the entire student body and faculty, wishes to take this method of extending our deepest sympathy during their time of bereavement over the loss of their mother and grandmother.

Also to the classmates and bereaved family of John Carol Dowd, late member of the fifth grade of Canyon Grade School, the Eagle's Tale staff, members of the faculty and entire school wishes to extend its most sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their inestimable loss of brother, child, and friend.

All parents are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Supervisor's Column

In previous installments of this column, attention has been given to several features of our supervisory program. This week it is my purpose to make a few observations on recent signs of earnestness on the part of students.

The first is in regard to our system of checking on makeup work where a pupil has missed school. Many students in the past few weeks have made some such remark as this, "I surely hate to get a slip, but I think it is the best thing the school has installed." Many others have expressed their appreciation of the fact that the school is provided an extra period each day for helping those who are in need of special aid.

In a different field we find many students drilling on debates, extemporaneous speech, oratory, etc.—all activities which involve much study and labor and which have little compensation in the way of public applause.

Another field in which much earnestness may be found is that of our high school newspaper work. These boys and girls spend hours and hours of their time, reading, writing, and studying, in order to give you better and more accurate reporting of the news. Just now they are engaged in sponsoring a Panhandle-Plains meet for organizing a High School Press Association, in order to meet other students of similar ambitions, all over this section.

The intramural basketball tournament just finished, shows that dozens of lads of every size and degree of ability, are anxious to play ball, for the sake of the game itself; and there is no more thrilling or hard-fought game in the entire season, than the final game of the intramural series.

Too often we see the activities of the high school which are rampant, but those things are in the minority. On the other hand, dozens of our students are going about their daily work with a seriousness and ambition that would put their elders to shame. Herein lies the hope of the Canyon of tomorrow—of the America of tomorrow. And I believe with all my heart that you will not have cause to be ashamed of the kind of citizens which your school is training.

"LIVELY LADY" BY ROBERTS IS GIVEN TO LIBRARY

The newest addition to the Canyon high school library is the book "Lively Lady" by Kenneth Roberts. The book is a gift from Mr. I. B. Carruth.

The book is a story of the sea, and life in Dartmoor prison during the war of 1812. It gives a thrilling account of Lady Ransom's friends as prisoners aboard a British Man-o-War, and later prisoners in Dartmoor prison. It gives a vivid picture of how Lady Ransom saves her friends and wins her fiancé.

Lee Christine Cousins and Miss Eileen Murrell were in Amarillo Friday afternoon.

Sanders Plans Big Track Year For Canyon Hi

Coach Milton Sanders, Canyon High's vaulting hero of a few years back, says track material is good this year.

This is Mr. Sanders' first year as assistant coach here at Canyon. He formerly taught at Slaton and coached the junior high boys there.

The track has been improved and a new pit dug the past week. Many of the boys have taken "track fever" and are telling how they are going to Austin in the five-mile cross-country or the fifty-yard dash.

The relay team should be extra good this year because three of last year's team are back and they did good work last year.

Mr. Sanders can also give the track team many good pointers on the javelin, shot, and discus, as he was good at all of these when he was going to school.

The season opened Monday, March 12.

High School Girls; 7th Grade Have Baseball Game

The high school girls' playground baseball team, playing opposite the seventh grade girls kept the lead, March 12, in the ball game began Friday noon, March 9. The score at the close of the Friday game stood at 7-9 in favor of the high school girls, and 8-11, Monday.

The high school girls' line-up Monday was as follows: Pitcher, Laveta Watkins; first base, Mary Ella Davis; second base, Ruth Richeson; third base, Evelyn Cox; catcher, Pauline Harris; coach, Miss Lois Goodrich.

The seventh grade girls' line-up was: Pitcher, Mary Horn; first base, Gladys Hutton; second base, Obera Burkan; third base, Glena Eastwood; catcher, Marie O'Donnell; short stop, Rena Beti Bellah; coach, Miss Annis Smith. Referee, O. M. Solomon.

The girls of both teams have been practicing baseball at the noon hour since shortly after school started. Because of the unusually fair weather the girls have been able to practice almost every day so they are naturally in good trim.

FRESHMAN HOME EC. CLUB MEETS AT MAYFIELD HOME

The Freshman Home Economics Club met Wednesday, March 7, at the home of Carolyn Mayfield.

The girls met at Billy Greenfield's home, and from there went in cars to Mayfield's. Pay Plaster had charge of the program, which was about the personality of a girl. She was assisted by Anna Mayo Sharp and Beulah Brasuel. After the program the stunt for April 6 was practiced. Refreshments of cookies and fruit salad were served.

The violin choir, consisting of Robbie Foster, Lorene Bessire, Lela Bell Johnson, Ruby Foster and Lena Wade Jennings played at the Methodist Church Sunday night. They were accompanied by Lee Christine Cousins at the piano.

Miss Gladys McClanahan had company from Littlefield Saturday and Sunday.

Friday night, March 8th, C. H. S. intramural tournament came to a close with a fast game between the sophomores and juniors, score 12 to 10.

Of the eight games played, each team was represented at least twice. The freshmen and 7th grade were defeated in the first two games they played and were thus eliminated. The seniors were eliminated in the semi-finals by the juniors with a score of 11-9. The seventh grade was handicapped by the size of their players, most of them were rather small.

On Friday night came the final game played between the Juniors and Sophomores. The Juniors started the scoring and managed to keep a few points ahead throughout the game. Fouling was extensive, the Juniors making 12 personal fouls and the Sophomores 8. The officials were Austin Cone and Robert Black, ex-students of Canyon High School.

Debaters Defeat Friona, Borger, And Hereford

Canyon high debate teams and extemporaneous speaker have completed a successful week, having defeated Friona, Hereford, and Borger, on March 6, 8, and 10, respectively.

The affirmative side of the question, Resolved: "That the U. S. should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control and operation," was upheld by Armor Lee Greenfield and Laura Ferne Brian at Friona. In the boys' debate, Bob Orton and Alton Brasuel defended the negative. Both teams won by a two to one decision.

Hereford girls were defeated by Laura Ferne Brian and Irene Thompson who defended the negative case.

Mary Ella Lowe, extemporaneous speaker, won the decision over the Hereford speaker. Mary Ella's subject was, "The American Fascist"; Hereford's, "Is Roosevelt a Fascist?"

Saturday morning Canyon's girl team and speaker were victorious over Borger high. Representatives of C. H. S. who upheld the affirmative were Bobby Jo Cheyne and Irene Thompson.

Mary Ella Lowe speaking on "Is Roosevelt a Fascist?" won the two to one decision over the Borger contestant who spoke on "The State Control of Liquor."

Damrosch Hour Heard By High School Studes

The Music Appreciation Hour, sponsored by Walter Damrosch, was heard Friday, March 9, by the entire high school and the seventh grade in the high school auditorium at 10:00 a. m.

This program is the tenth concert of its kind presented by the celebrated Damrosch and his orchestra. The theme of the program was "Dances of Many Lands."

The program was as follows: Review Number. Minuet from "Don Giovanni"—Mozart. Morris Dance from "Henry VIII"—Edward German. Trepak from "Nutcracker" Suite—Tchaikovsky. "The Beautiful Blue Danube"—Johann Strauss, Jr. Tango in D—Albeniz. Scalp Dance from "Indian Sketches"—Kinsella.

Before each number, Mr. Damrosch gives its history, the particular type of composition presented, and names the musical instruments by which it is played.

Thelma Bryant and Elizabeth Bowman were in Amarillo Saturday night.

Mary Orton, an ex-student of C. H. S. is teaching at Community Center in Childress county.

Edith Steen, Laura Ferne Brian and Sis Overton were in Amarillo Saturday night.

Dora Mae Plaster visited in Clarendon and Alanreed, Sunday.

HOW ABOUT YOUR MANNERS?

If each student in high school were asked how much he has been enjoying the last few chapel programs, one would say, "They are all right to be given by high school kids." Another would say, "I think they are the best programs we have had this year."

Now, why are there these differences of opinion among the cultured and wellbred students of Canyon High School?

Let's consider the first student. He goes to chapel simply because he is required to do so. He cares nothing for the programs unless they consist of gay music, dancing, entertaining readings, or comical plays which are usually put on by experienced outsiders. Serious, intellectual, educational, or cultural things hold no interest for him. During such programs as the latter group, this student thinks he is wasting his time because he is not getting a "kick" out of the programs.

The programs which are given by clubs of the school are received by this person with laughs and jeers just because one of his fellow students is acting. Instead of trying to get something out of the program itself, he can't get away from the fact that students are performing; he disturbs the audience besides embarrassing the performers, and thus displays to everyone his lack of knowledge of really good things as well as his lack of courtesy.

The second student really enjoys chapel and does all he can to make it enjoyable for others. He always pays attention to the programs. He has enough courtesy and appreciation of the efforts of the people performing not to laugh at them. This person likes light programs, also, but he is able to appreciate the more artistic and classical ones as well.

Which one of these students are you?

Chapel programs put on by the student body have been the demand of the student body all this year. Now that we are having them, the reception of them is very discouraging to the student performers. Our reaction shows we need to train ourselves to appreciate better programs—intellectual and cultural ones, especially. Most of all we need to learn when it is time to laugh.

Basketball Boys Sweaters Have Been Ordered

On Monday, Feb. 26, six basketball boys were measured for their 1934 basketball sweaters. They were T. V. Slack, Francis Elliston, Wesley Williams, Alton Brasuel, Curtis Ellison, and O. M. Solomon. All the boys will have to pay for their sweaters, with the exception of O. M. Solomon; as he did not letter in football, his sweater will be awarded him. Those receiving two stripes are: Francis Elliston, Curtis Ellison, Wesley Williams, and O. M. Solomon. Alton Brasuel and T. V. Slack receive only one stripe.

I. R. C. Conference Highly Praised By Visiting Students

Featuring three world traveled speakers, and attended by one of the most interested delegations in its history, the Regional Conference of International Relations Clubs held on the W. T. campus Friday and Saturday was acclaimed one of the most stimulating meetings in the history of the Southwest Conference.

Speakers furnished by the Carnegie Foundation for the Promotion of World Peace, sponsors of the Conference, were the Honorable David Maynard, internationally known economist and lecturer; Ernst Uiberall, native-born Austrian who is now studying in America and Miss Amy Hemmingsway Jones, chairman of the International Relations Club division of the Endowment.

Study Cuban Question
Delegates from West Texas and New Mexico colleges and universities began arriving Thursday and following registration Friday morning went immediately into a discussion of "The Cuban Situation," with Dr. C. B. Casey, of Sul Ross, presiding. High points in this session were pertinent remarks made by Jose Reyes and Antonio Morales, native-born Cubans.

Professor B. H. Warren, Wayland College, presided over the conference luncheon held in the College Cafeteria at noon Friday. Miss Jones, representing the Carnegie Foundation, spoke on the work of International Relations Clubs in foreign lands. Mr. Uiberall explained the attitude of many students studying international relations, and Dr. Maynard was introduced to the assembly.

Uiberall Well Received
Mr. Uiberall, speaking on "The Problem of Austria," was well received at the afternoon session. He spoke with feeling concerning his own country, and said that one of the greatest tragedies that nation had suffered was the lost and disillusionment of the war generation, leaving Austria now without adequate leaders.

Dr. A. S. White, University of New Mexico, presided over the session which was concerned primarily with a discussion of the League of Nations.

Tea At Little House
Tea was served to the visitors at 5 o'clock at the Little House of Fellowship with Mrs. Elizabeth Fry Page as hostess. Many delegates were given an opportunity at this time to meet and talk with the speakers and with brother delegates.

Last Year's Rookie Crop Was a Swell One, So Don't Be Surprised to See New Names in Lineups This Season

BY PHILIP MARTIN

WHEN April showers subside to bring baseball to big league fans, you'll see several rookies of 1933 fitting into regular shoes in the old home town team's lineup. Last season was lavish in its development of rookie talent, and out of the number of first year men who starred can be picked a team that would hold its own with any other aggregation assembled to play against it.

The team as Philip sees it should be composed of Hank Greenberg, Detroit first baseman; "Bad News" Hale, Cleveland second sacker; Frank Higgins, Athletics, third; Johnny Ryan, Giants' shortstop; Debs Garms, St. Louis Browns' outfielder; Pete Fox, Detroit gardener; Joe Medwick, Cardinals' outfielder, and Frankie Pytlak, sparky little Cleveland catcher.

The heavers would be Monte Pearson, Cleveland; Russell Van Atta, Yankees; Walter Beck, Brooklyn, and Hal Smith, Pittsburgh.

Excluding the pitchers, this team would have a batting average of .284, which isn't to be sneezed at. The four pitchers among them won 42 and lost 36 games during 1933.

SPEAKING of rookies—the Cubs have one in George Stainback who has terrorized pitchers in the Pacific coast loop for the last two years. Young George, a handsome lad, was purchased by the Cubs last year, and they laid 75,000 smack-ers on the line for him. Then they followed up that action by insuring his life for $150,000—which is taken to mean that Mons. Wrigley and outfit think a lot of the youth. He hit .335 last year, which would make him second to Chuck Klein in the bludgeoning department of the Cubs' outfield.

It's doubtful if young George gets much action this year, because Klein, Kiki Cuyler, and Babe Herman will be out there regularly, with "Old Hoss"

Stephenson ready to fill any holes. If he does get a chance to show his wares, however, the Cubs' other lambasters better watch out!

SPEAKING of rookies again—there's another coming out of the west, although he isn't a ball player. He is big Art Lasky, a Hebrew heavyweight who hails from Minnesota, but who has been fighting out of Los Angeles.

Many critics think Art is headed for the top of the heavyweight heap. He is hailed as a sensation on the west coast. In 41 fights, the 186-pound six-footer has lost only one decision. Thirty-one of his bouts he has won by knockouts. All of which should mean something.

But Natural Gas Offers a Greater Saving Every Day!

Shopping through the pages of your newspaper, your attention frequently is attracted by special prices, offering from 10 to 33 per cent reductions on such staple articles as food, clothing, furniture and drugs. If the items are standard merchandise you will term them as excellent values—good bargains.

Yet, the Gas Company is offering you far greater bargains every day that you use its service. You save 70 per cent on fuel cost by cooking with gas as compared to the cost of the second least expensive fuel. In like manner you save 40 per cent by heating water with gas, and 75 per cent by using gas refrigeration.

"There's the doorbell again"

SUPPOSE daily to your door came the butcher, the grocer, the clothier, the furrier, the furniture man, and every other merchant with whom you deal? What a tedium of doorbell answering that would mean!

It would be even more impractical for you to visit daily all these stores to find out what they have to offer and the price.

And yet you need those merchants' service quite as much as they need your patronage. Contact between seller and consumer is essential in the supplying of human needs. Before a sale can be closed the goods must be offered. Every week, through the advertising columns of this newspaper, the merchants of Canyon come to your home with their choicest wares. Easily, quickly, you get the news of all that is worth while in the market places of the world.

They are not strangers at the door, but merchants you know and trust. You are always surer of high quality and fair price when you buy an article advertised by a reputable firm.

NOTICE TO PATRONS CANYON INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Beginning March 1, the Scholastic Census of the Canyon Public Schools will be taken. Mr. Andy Walsh has been elected secretary of the district and will start soliciting at this time.

Inasmuch as the state apportions $16 per pupil, it is very important that each child coming under the school age of 6 to 18 be given to Mr. Walsh.

All courtesies extended to the enumerator will be appreciated by the Board.

dam, and the road at least four miles into the canyon is the objective set before any change is made in the CCC force.

Materials are on the ground for the lodge, and rapid progress is being made. Guy Carlander, architect, states that the first floor will accommodate approximately 600 people for dining purposes. With no delays the first story will be completed soon after the first of the month. When the CCC forces are reduced it is likely that civilian labor will be authorized to carry on the building during the summer.

The road down the canyon has been planned to within a mile of the park boundary where it will stop. At this point the group of cabins will be erected in typical western style, each being named for one of the famous West Texas ranches. Bridle trails will go to various interesting points from this camp.

Dr. H. N. Wheeler of Washington, representing the National Forestry Service, visited the Park Monday and was escorted on a tour of inspection by Mr. Carlander, Major Kingsley, Dr. J. A. Hill and Clyde W. Warwick. He was highly impressed with the possibilities of the Park.

Definite word from Washington as to the size of the force during the summer has been anxiously awaited by the veterans at the camp as well as by the citizens of the Plains who are so greatly interested in the Palo Duro Park. It was indicated last week that not more than one company would be kept here during the summer, and the protest filed by citizens, Marvin Jones and Senator Connally resulted in the second company being retained.

D. E. Colp, chairman of the State Parks Board, was unable to make a trip to the Park this week, but hopes to come during the next two weeks.

tion building, and was promised from Austin that action would be taken at once.

H. S. Strain, local administrator, had received notice Monday that Randall county's quota under CWA would be reduced 20% weekly. The new set-up came in time to save many families from actual want. However, the new quota of 300 will not give work to all people in the county who need it, since more than 500 "case records" of people who need assistance are on file at the county headquarters.

The grant of special drouth relief to the Panhandle comes as a special effort on the part of county and city officials and relief committees of the Plains who asked for this appropriation last fall and renewed the appeal to Washington three weeks ago for special treatment owing to the continued drouth.

New Deal to Stay, Says FDR

President Roosevelt is pictured above as he spoke to the nation's code authorities, assembled in Washington, launching the second year of the New Deal. In his momentous speech, the president stressed the fact that the economic planning embodied in the New Deal will be permanent; that there must be still more employment, higher wages, and shorter hours in the drive toward recovery. Tri-State Music Festival Will Be Held Here April 5

The Tri-State Music Festival which will be held in Canyon April 5, 6, and 7, is being planned for by local officers, Wallace R. Clark, Herschel Coffee and Miss Pauline Brigham, and by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce which is making it possible for the festival to have a Tri-State Orchestra which will give one of the important programs of the three-day session.

Badges will be furnished all students registering in all the contests, and the Chamber of Commerce will assist all members of the orchestra to find lodgings during their stay in Canyon. The visitors will furnish their own meals, unless they are being entertained in the homes of friends.

Three out-of-state judges will serve during the contest festival. They are Clyde Whitlock, violinist and critic of Fort Worth, Dr. Edward D. Hale of Colorado Springs, and Rollin Pease, baritone, of Tuscon, Arizona.

Three programs of great public interest will be offered. They are a recital by Mr. Pease, the annual spring concert of the Madrigal Club and a concert by the Tri-State Orchestra which will be the final event of the festival.

Buffs Take Final Game of Season at Weatherford Thurs.

The Buffaloes took the final game of the season Thursday night at Weatherford, Okla., with a score of 29 to 25.

In the final game, Young, who had been high point man in the first game, was held to three points by the excellent guarding of Richards, who was playing his last game in a Maroon and White suit. All the team played steady consistent ball of a good brand, leading the Murraysmen throughout the game, the score being 14 to 4 at the half.

Captain Russell Stroud, also performing the last time for West Texas, was high point man, chalking up 15 points. Big John Walker was next high with 9.

Information Is Being Sought in Regard to Park

If inquiries directed to the Chamber of Commerce are to be taken as indication of outside interest in the Palo Duro development, then there is more attention directed toward the park than many people think.

According to Fred Wortham, secretary, there is a constant request from all parts of Texas for information on the development of the park in the Palo Duro canyon.

High school students are seeking information to use in preparing essays for their school work; people who are beginning to plan summer vacation trips are making inquiry regarding what they may expect to see at the canyon; writers interested in natural scenic beauty of Texas are seeking information to help them in preparing articles on the development of the Park. Such information as this will in turn give publicity to the project which will be worth thousands of dollars to Canyon and the park in the future.

Only recently through the Chamber of Commerce a writer was furnished with detailed information on the park, to be used in a feature article to be published in an eastern daily which has a large international circulation.

It is stated that for the Chamber of Commerce to assist those who seek information on the park project is no little task and at the same time it is worth much in valuable publicity for Canyon.

Professors L. S. Baker and T. B. McCarter spent Monday in Plainview visiting classes in the high school. Among ex-students they saw were Billie McClure, Eppie Irons and Marie Luna.
